officers and many men.

The General Reserve Corps advanced along the Liaoyang road. The enemy was composed of the whole Third Division and Twenty-second and Twenty-fourth Regiments of Sixth Infantry Division Sharpshooters, Mischauko's cavalry brigade of about forty guns and eight machine guns. They fled toward Fenghoan-cheng.

The captain of the "Maya" reports that a detachment consisting of the "Maya" and "Seji" (?) and torpedo boats ascended the Yalu on the 1st of May, bombarding the enemy.

While they were returning, the enemy's artillery suddenly attacked the torpe to boats, who silenced the enemy after thirty minutes' severe engagement. The detachment all returned to Yongampho without casualties and our armed launches reached Antung in the same morning and repulsed the enemy's infantry and artillery after thirty minutes' sharp fighting.

Fire was seen rising from the town. A native says that the enemy fled toward Antung after setting fire.
